WAI Australian Chapter Non-Flight Scholarship

This scholarship is open application to financially assist with the cost of aviation-related training towards any commendable aviation endeavour (excluding flight training). This could include an aircraft maintenance engineer (AME) working towards becoming a licensed aircraft maintenance engineer (LAME), an aeronautical student looking for assistance with university fees, or someone working towards an aviation management or aviation safety qualification and, of course, every aviation career in between. The scholarship funds can be used to support your career in any way - maybe its textbook, equipment, or attendance at industry networking events - you tell us how the scholarship can help advance your career! This scholarship is open to members 18 years and older on the closing date.

All applications must be accompanied by a short essay 500 – 1000 words maximum. The descriptive essay should address the following:

- Your aviation history and goals;
- What you have done for yourself to achieve your goals;
- Where you see yourself in five years;
- How the scholarship will help you achieve your objective.

Applications open 31 August 2022.

Applications are to be submitted using the online application form at <https://waiaustralia.org/ninja-forms/34opp> which will require the uploading of your essay in either word or pdf format.

Value: $2500

Applications close EOD Sunday 16 October 2022.
